At the meeting of Mt. Vernon Lodge, No. 75, P. and A. M., Tuesday night, the entered apprentice degree was conferred on two candidates. District Deputy High Priest of New London, the eighth Masonic district, was a guest. The members of Faith Chapter, O. E. S., served a supper which was provided by the Masons. The menu included Scotch ham, potato salad, rolls, sweet pickles, cake, ice cream and coffee. The tables laid in Rouse hall were beautifully decorated with flowers.

Mrs. Frank Rose of Philadelphia, Pa., is a guest of her brother, W. R. Burdick.

Harriet McLuggage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McLuggage, fell while playing at the school at the Bend and broke her arm. She was taken to Dr. J. Byron Sweet, who reduced the fracture.

A number of local Baptist people are attending the Seaboard Union Association meetings at Norfolk.

The bronze tablet given by Anne Brewster Panning Chapter, D. A. B., in memory of the soldiers from this town who made the supreme sacrifice in the World War, was placed in position on the lawn at Slater Library Tuesday. Marie E. Gilbert did the work, having the tablet in the cement, which, of course, had to be laid. Several children at once proceeded to muddle with it and twist it out of position. The librarian sent them away several times, but when she went home at the supper hour, they took advantage of her absence, and on her return she found the inscription facing the library, the tablet having been turned completely around. She reported the matter and the tablet was remedied. Mr. Gilbert will have to do the work over again. He is a busy man, and his services can be made for thoughtful acts of children, but not for deliberate vandalism. Such an emblem should be held as sacred as the flag for which these men died.

SOUTH WILLINGTON

Frank Tinker, Jr., has given up work in the machine shop and has gone to York.

At a special communication of Urie Lodge, next Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock will be in the P. C. degree. Through an error in this column last week, the notice referring to the invitation to the people of this village should have read as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hall extend an invitation to the people of this village to be present at the wedding of their daughter, Boris, Thursday, June 17 at 5 o'clock p. m. in the Memorial church.

Mrs. William Bailey of Worcester, Mass., visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brockett last week.

C. T. Macfarland and Mrs. S. P. Morse Morrison are visiting. Miss Dorothy Macfarland of Bristol.

Rev. and Mrs. Walter Westerfield of New York are spending a few days here visiting relatives.

The funeral of Arthur Devereaux took place from his home Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The deceased was a faithful employee of the G. H. Hall, Jr., Co. for over forty years. He was liked by all who knew him and was always ready to help one when in need. He was a member of Urie Lodge, A. F. and A. M., and had just completed his funeral services were conducted by Rev. Theodore Bacher. Burial was in Willington Hill cemetery where the services were held by Urie Lodge, A. F. and A. M.

Mr. Devereaux is survived by the following children: Miss Cora Devereaux and Mrs. F. A. Webb and Arthur J. Devereaux. There were beautiful floral pieces. The bearers were A. L. Spier, J. H. Edwards, J. Brownlee, R. Worden, R. Birkhead and F. Colburn.

LIBERTY HILL

Mr. and Mrs. William Knott of New York are visiting Mr. Knott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Knott.

While Charles E. Goodrich was ploughing a few days ago, a whirlwind came across the field striking between his two horses, apparently raising one horse from the ground. Mr. Goodrich thought the horse was going up into the whirlwind. The C. E. society is to have a social Friday evening.

The district school is holding sessions Saturdays to make up time lost last winter.

Miss John Clarke was badly injured last Wednesday, losing her footing while cleaning in the bath room, falling and striking her side on the edge of the bathtub. She has had to spend most of the time in bed the past few days, but is up now. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hall and son Stanton of Milford, Conn., called on friends here and in Lebanon Saturday. Mr. Bailey is a former resident of this place.

Flag day was observed here by putting out the community flag.

Miss Edith Knott, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Knott, will be graduated this year from Windham High school. A children's day concert will take the place of the regular morning service Sunday next.

While nightmare is said to be capable of causing death to a physically weak adult, this has never been known to happen to a child; yet children are more subject to nightmare than adults.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Rev. James H. George of Columbia Mo., formerly rector of St. Alban's church, was being greeted here by many friends Wednesday. Rev. Mr. George expects to remain in the east about a month and will spend some of the time in Danielson.

George Morse of Attawapung was a guest recently of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferrigno, at their home on the West Side.

Leo Bodo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bodo of Carter street, is recovering after an operation for appendicitis at St. Vincent's hospital, Worcester, where he remains as a patient.

D. E. Sette has purchased the Charles Cook property, on Broad street. Mr. Cook has been given a life lease of the dwelling on the property.

Officials here have been asked to investigate the lottery feature connected with the efforts of a group of canvassers to secure orders for pictures enlarged from photographs.

If you wish prompt and careful motor trucking service, call the staff telephone 243-3 or 369 or call at American Railway Express office—adv.

Louis Barstow of East Killingly is in charge of the Windham County Farmers' association membership drive in the town of Killingly.

Miss Katherine D. Aylward was at New London Wednesday attending a conference of chief operators of the S. N. E. T. company.

This is graduation day for the senior class of Killingly High school. Class day exercises, invitation to which is from class members, are to be held in the town hall this afternoon. The graduating exercises are scheduled for this evening in the town hall.

Killingly was not represented this year among the members of the class graduated from Connecticut College at New London. Last year's class, the first graduated from the college, had Danielson members.

Company C, state guard, of this place, has been equipped with Krag rifles. These new weapons, which were brought out from the state armory at Hartford by Captain A. P. Woodard, replace the equipment of the old type of Springfield rifles which the company has been using.

Inspector R. C. Young, of the state motor vehicle department, gave notice on Wednesday that arrests will now be made of all drivers operating cars at night with headlights that are classed as illegal. The department has ordered its inspectors to begin making arrests, as full and sufficient warning has been given. It is felt that about 95 per cent. of the cars being operated at night have legal lenses, but some have not and the law must be enforced. Stephen Prentice of Lakewood, R. I., was a visitor in Danielson Wednesday to transact business pertaining to the settlement of the estate of his sister, Miss Lieve Francis.

So attractive are the opportunities for young people to make money in Danielson and the surrounding territory at this time that many who are coming out of the schools for what is usually regarded as the long vacation period are going to work right through the summer season.

Danielson, it now seems probable, will not have much of a celebration of the Fourth this year. The big holiday will not be allowed to go by unnoticed, however, as there will be baseball games, dances, special programs in the schools and other events to furnish entertainment for all who wish it.

Volumes of the Centenary history of the Connecticut are being received here from "Sovereign" W. H. Taylor of Hartford, who, as secretary of the special Centenary committee, compiled the interesting book, of which 2500 copies were authorized by the legislature in 1919.

John E. Dawley, 74, is dead at his home in Mossup Valley. Mr. Dawley was a brother of Job Dawley, who lives at East Killingly.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lydia A. Curtis were conducted at her home near Dayville by Rev. Jerome Wood of Rockester, N. Y., and Rev. William Swainson of Dayville. Burial was in Dayville cemetery. The bearers were Frank Bennett, Mrs. E. K. Keworth, Elmer Wood and Paul C. Darrow. Louis E. Kennedy took charge of the funeral arrangements.

Many new windows have been set into the sides of the big building purchased by the Peco Manufacturing company, on Furnace street, this property originally owned by the Peco company. The new windows afford much better lighting of the interior during the daylight period. This company is steadily going ahead with its plans and will be operating in the not distant future.

It was stated Wednesday that there have been no new developments in the matter of the borough's action to seek to have the utility commission relieved from the advance of 25 to 30 per cent. in water rates by the Crystal Water company.

Plans have been completed for the reception of the class of 1920 to be held in the state armory Friday evening. As is customary here, this reception is given in honor of the class by the Killingly High School Alumni association, now numbering several hundred members.

Rose of Lima council has another large class of candidates awaiting the degree of knighthood. The membership of this council has been steadily increasing during the past year and is now nearing the 230 mark.

It was evident from the number attending the graduation of the pupils of the eighth grades of schools in the town of Killingly and the musical festival this year combined with the graduation that it is an event that proved very popular and there seemed to be a demand Wednesday that it be made a regular feature of graduation week. The bringing together of the pupils of the different schools scattered through the villages of the town has created an advantageous spirit that it is felt should be fostered and encouraged in every possible way.

The Submarine Base team of New London is coming here at the week-end for a game with the Connecticut Mills baseball team. The naval base team is said to be made up of a fast group of players, and the mill team members will be at their best if they win.

The building activities that have been going on for months past at Connecticut village, where the big mills are developing in the northern section of Danielson, are now showing finished results. A number of dwellings have been completed and are occupied and others that are under construction will be finished within a few weeks.

CHESTERFIELD

Misses Sophia Katz and Rebecca Miller were called in New London recently. The dance given by the Eureka Social club Thursday evening was well attended by people from New London, Salem, Waterford, Montville and East Lyme. Hanna's orchestra furnished music.

A surprise party was given and a June box was hung to Ruth Morgan Saturday night. After the usual chase the callers were invited into the house where games were played. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Thompson, Mrs. George Chappell, Mrs. George Comstock, Misses Ruth Tinker, Belle Flora and Priscilla Chappell, Dora Chappell, Goldie Kaplan, Florence Pavers, Messrs. Arthur Merriman, Ben Kaplan, William Tinker, Moses Savin, Elmer Chappell and Truman Chappell. Refreshments were served. An enjoyable evening was spent.

PUTNAM

Many gathered at the assembly hall of the high school, Wednesday afternoon, for the class day exercises, first of the important events of commencement week. Wednesday's programme held the peculiar interest and charm always attached to events of this kind and the class members perhaps enjoyed the programme as much as any of the many affairs that have marked their four years of high school study.

The programme of the afternoon, was arranged as follows:

Entrance of classes; selection, P. H. S. orchestra; Welcome, Stanton Ballard, class president; Class History, Wilbur Low; Class Will, Anna Donlon; selection, P. H. S. orchestra; Class prophecy, Alice Adams; "Sourvenirs" Stuart Pease; Thomas Hanley; selection, P. H. S. orchestra; Presentation of Class Gift, Stanton Ballard, class president; singing of Auld Lang Syne, seniors; prayer, prayer on front entrance steps, Gladys Covell; Planting of Ivy, Class of 1920.

The Putnam city court is having an unusually busy week, though nothing of the rush business of the old wet days is being experienced. Wednesday morning Deputy Judge Archibald Macdonald, Jr., heard a case in which Harry Jackson, colored, and Telephone O'Clair, were concerned.

Mr. Jackson was brought in to answer to an assault charge, preferred as the result of his striking O'Clair. The court heard what there was to be said about the circumstances leading up to the encounter, it appearing that the trouble started after O'Clair had chased Jackson's son, and found Jackson not guilty.

F. W. Keeney, formerly sub-master at Putnam High School and later a teacher at the Woonsocket High School, has been appointed physical director at the Rhode Island State college at Kingston.

Keeney is well remembered not only in high school circles hereabouts, but also among those who follow baseball, at which game Mr. Keeney has made the reputation of being an exceedingly proficient player.

Miss Emerald Macdonald, who is staying with her parents, Senator and Mrs. Archibald Macdonald, having completed a year of teaching in New York, is to spend the greater part of the summer at Great Barrington, Mass.

Many, many warnings have been given relative to equipping motor vehicles with legal headlights, arrests are to be made of those found violating the law. It was stated on Wednesday by Deputy Inspector R. C. Young of the state motor vehicle department, the substance of the law pertaining to headlights on motor vehicles is that the lights must be such as to make plain the substantial object at a distance of 200 feet down the highway and at the same time be free from the glare that is such a danger to other traffic.

The majority of motorists here have proper lights, but a few have not troubled themselves to properly equip their machines. Inspection will now be done nightly that those who are violating the law may be apprehended and dealt with accordingly.

Attorney J. F. McCarter was at Connecticut college for the graduation, his daughter, Miss Alice Maude Carpenter being one of the class of 48 members to receive diplomas. The class is the second graduated from the institution at New London.

Many of the children of this city have collected $50.00 to be added to the Near East Relief fund being collected in Putnam. The sum mentioned here is made up of very small amounts, representing many contributions.

Steeple Tom Fitzpatrick, who is to make his headquarters in this city during the summer, is at present engaged in doing work on the Royal Mills at Riverpoint, R. I. These fine mills, badly damaged by fire some years ago, are being rebuilt and Mr. Fitzpatrick has been engaged in doing work on the ornamental towers which rise from the main structure of the mills and are described as one of the finest built in New England.

Sovereign W. H. Taylor has forwarded to this city copies of the Centenary book, published to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Connecticut legislature. Among the photographs in the volume, which is of historical value, is one of G. Harold Gilpatrick, state treasurer, of this city. Senator Archibald Macdonald is also pictured in group photograph of members of the upper house.

Road signs pointing the way to Willimantic and Hartford and to Worcester and Providence are needed in the center of the city where Main street runs across the ends of Print and Pomfret streets if the number of motorists who every day stop to inquire their way is any indication.

Progress is being reported over the entire county in the membership campaign. The towns showing recent progress in the membership campaign, are the towns of Ashford, where the membership drive is as follows: Woodstock, S. H. Peckham, Mrs. J. H. Healey; Thompson, Joseph Baker, Mrs. George H. Nicholson; Pomfret, John R. Stromberg, Mrs. Willis Covey; Eastford, William S. Warren, Mrs. P. S. Collins; Killingly, Louis S. Barstow; Plainfield, Henry Dorrance, Mrs. Edith M. Kennedy; Sterling, John Taylor, Mrs. N. S. Sweet; Windham, C. B. Pomeroy, Mrs. George A. Cook.

Some of the other towns not mentioned have not reported to the Farmers' association the extent of the membership drive in their towns; in the case of Ashford, that town went over its quota very soon after the membership drive step.

Following are some of those who have been active in the campaign to date, to the knowledge of the Farmers' association office. Others have been active in getting new members, but have not made reports to the office.

Thomas Marra, of Windham, secured 24 new members in the town of Windham. S. H. Peckham of Woodstock, together with Mrs. L. H. Healey, about a dozen canvassers do the work. B. R. Rich is one of the first to report progress, turning in the names of 16 members. Mr. Peckham has turned in membership fees to the Farmers' Association office. H. P. Hibbard, of the same place, also reported progress to the office.

In Thompson, Joseph Baker, town director, is being assisted in the membership drive by Herbert G. Steele, E. I. Huntington, William M. Mayhew, and Alex. Matland. Mr. Baker has turned in 10 new members. Mr. Steele has secured new members, and the other men are progressing.

Everett E. Brown, president of the association, and John R. Stromberg, town director, together with F. K. Haines, P. E. Chism, Mrs. Willis Covey, and Howard White, are making good progress in Pomfret.

In Eastford, Mrs. P. S. Collins and William S. Warren are taking care of the town.

In Ashford, the town was over its

To Have Curly, Wavy Hair "Like Nature's Own"

In three hours you can have just the prettiest curls and waves! And they remain a long time, when liquid Silmerine is used before doing up the hair. When the hair is combed out it will be nice and fluffy. Silmerine is perfectly harmless, of course, and is easily applied with a clean tooth brush. It can be obtained at drug stores and at toilet counters generally, directions accompanying each bottle. It serves also as a splendid dressing, keeping the hair soft and glossy.

Silmerine is fine for the outdoor girl, as it prevents the hair from stringing about the face and neck, even when the day is quite warm or windy.
